TAILOR-MADE AFRICAN ADVENTURES

Rwanda works as a destination on its own but also links up very nicely with a longer safari in Tanzania. Most famous for its Gorillas, it is also home 13 more primate species in Nyungwe. While it is often a high-end pricy destination, here is a mid-range option. Sample itineraries are only guidelines, and each trip can be tweaked, the focus can be shifted, the locations varied, or we can start again from scratch.

Let the Gorillas in!

TAILOR-MADE AFRICAN ADVENTURES

Day 01: Kigali

1 Nights (Full board)

Arrival at Kigali off your international connection. After passing through the health check, Immigration and Customs, transfer to your town hotel for the night. Bed and Breakfast – other meals and drinks payable directly. Depending on your arrival time, and the COVID protocols in place, you may need to spend 2 nights in the town hotel and therefore we can arrange a visit to the Genocide Museum for those interested. Second night and activities not included in the cost indication above

Day 02: Parc National des Volcans

3 Night (Full board)

After breakfast, you will head up to the border of the National Park: a drive through lush vegetation and beautiful views and rich agricultural land. The drive is around 2.5 to 3 hours depending on traffic. Rwanda is an expensive destination, not least because of the cost of the Gorilla permits. So, we have chosen a mid-range property to help with the final total! This is base din the nearest town.

Each morning, you will meet at the Park HQ and join your trekking group, seeing a different family for each trek. The treks can take between 3-6 hours, depending on where the Gorillas have been nesting the day before. The actual Gorilla viewing is a slot of one hour.

Day 05: Kigali

1 Nights (Full board)

After a morning trek to see the Golden Monkeys in the forest, you head back down to Kigali for a night in the town. The flights to the Serengeti are in the morning. You may need to extend by one night if you need COVID tests for your onwards journey.

Day 06: Link to Serengeti

Transfer to the Airport for the flight to Serengeti and catch the lions on the plain. You can link to any airstrip within the park. Rwandair also flies to Kilimanjaro. Or you can carry on your adventures in Rwanda and head to Nyungwe.
